

God created us to be in relationship with Him and to live in the spirit of peace with one another. As followers of Christ in a divisive world, we must not allow ourselves to be separated by gender, ethnicity, denominations, worship styles, and political allegiances. In this study of Scripture, you'll discover what the Bible says about the importance of unity among believers.

THIS WEEK'S DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Read Psalm 133. What is the message of David's song to us as followers of Christ?
- In verse 1, David includes the words good and pleasant. What is the difference between them? How do both point us toward unity in our relationships?
- David's song reflects on the feast times, when the people went up to worship. What does the imagery of the "precious oil" and "the dew of Hermon" tell us about our relationship with God and His blessings?
- Read Ephesians 4:3. How does this New Testament verse align with Psalm 133?

CHALLENGE

As you consider the times we live in, write down some of the things you can do to encourage unity among followers of Jesus.

COMMIT TO MEMORY

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity!"
(Psalm 133:1 NASB)

PRAYER

Father, You have given us the model of unity through Your relationship with Your Son. Help us use it to build good and pleasant relationships with one another. Give us wisdom to know how we can come together as followers of Jesus in the spirit of peace. Keep our minds focused on the things that matter most. And let us be an example to the world of how we can all live in harmony through the oneness we have in Christ. In Your name we pray, Amen.
